

I am strongly opposed to media consolidation. As it is now, the news I hear and see are sanitized versions of what's really going on -- cleaned up by the government and large (interested) corporations. The lone voice of Pacifica is the only place I count on hearing the truth. Please don't further consolidate our me